IMMEDIATE USE PRESS RELEASE

TYPE: FELONIOUS ASSAULT
DATE OF RELEASE: November 5, 2018
DATE AND TIME OCCURRED: November 4, 2018 @ 5:48p.m.
LOCATION: 2105 Gregg Rd, South Boardman, Boardman Twp.
SUSPECT: MARCUS MILLER-AMORE, 22Y/O, W/M
VICTIM: 16 Y/O Female, Kalkaska

INFORMATION: Sheriff Whiteford reports that on 11/14/18 at approximately 5:48p.m., Kalkaska Central Dispatch received a 911 call from a female victim at the residence on Greg Road reporting that she and Marcus Miller-Amore had been in an argument and he pointed a long gun at her and subsequently fled on foot prior to the arrival of Kalkaska Deputies and State Troopers.

Local law enforcement; as well as, K-9 Units searched the area for approximately five hours looking for the suspect. Deputies and Troopers then returned to the original incident location where they found the suspect hiding in a vehicle on the property. The suspect was taken into custody and lodged at the Kalkaska County Jail.

The successful apprehension of this suspect is the result of law enforcement partners working together. In this case, the Kalkaska Sheriff's Office was assisted by the Michigan State Police K-9 Units and members of Emergency Services.
